FANTASY FIFTEEN

Verse #1:

Fantasy Fifteen
Girl of extremes
Whatcha' gonna do with your life?
Part-time work or unemployed or
Working the streets all night.

Chorus:

Fantasy Fifteen
Girl of extremes
Shattered dreams.

Verse #2:

Fantasy Fifteen
Girl of extremes
Whatcha' gonna do with with your time?
Take some pills, pot luck you know
A dream world you may find.

Repeat Chorus:

Bridge:

It's all right to try it.

Verse #3:

Fantasy Fifteen
Girl of extremes
Whatcha' gonna do with your love?
Give it here and give it there and
Give it all my love.

Repeat Chorus:

SOMETHING TO SAY

Verse:

Waitin' in line at the store.
Waitin' in line to buy some things.

Then she smiled and turned and waved goodbye.
Where'd you go ? I don't know.

It was there that she called me her own.
And I lost myself inside her eyes.

When will you be coming down my way ?
Lose your mind again, Counting on a friend ?

Well, I've got Something To Say...

NO DICE

Verse #1:

Ain't got no time to hold your hand.
Ain't got no time to be a family man.
Just give me a shot and it's time to go.
Don't give me questions. Just rub me slow.

Chorus:

They say I'm crazy as hell.
So what more do you need to know.
They just use you for a price.
No Dice.

Verse #2:

Ain't got no time to tell you the truth.
Ain't got no time to sing the happy blues.
Just give me a coat 'cause it's mighty cold.
Don't stop me now. Just let me roll the road.

Repeat Chorus:

Verse #3:

Ain't got no girl to call my own.
Ain't got no time to be some M. C. clone.
Just open up and let me in.
Your views of hate might change to love again.

Repeat Chorus:

No Dice Lyrics

YOU CAN FIND A BETTER WAY

Verse:

She said it was the circumstance.
She said she never took a chance with anybody else but me.
She said it was a right on move.
But tell me what you have to prove?
You know that I'm yours alone.

Bridge:

Can two hearts survive it all?
I surely can't believe it.
She said this time it's all for real.
You must believe.
She lied.
What does it matter anymore.

Chorus:

You Can Find A Better Way.
Silver lining in the sky.
You Can Find A Better Way.

NOBODY FALLS IN LOVE ANYMORE

Verse #1:

There she goes, an American beauty
She catches your eye.
Take a look, she's outstanding and pretty.
Who's the lucky guy? Oh, my my.

Bridge #1:

She's lookin' for Mr. Right.
She's gonna fall in love overnight.
She sees the world through distorted sight.
She's sure she's gonna fall in love.

Chorus:

Somebody's gotta tell her.
Nobody Falls In Love Anymore.

Verse #2:

Say listen to girl. You've gotta listen to me.
I'm gonna tell you the truth.
I'll try to tell you so you can see that
Love's not for the youth. Oh, Don't leave.

Bridge #2:

But there she goes off again.
She's searchin' for her special friend.
The one who's gonna love her 'til the end.
She's sure she's gonna fall in love.

Repeat Chorus:

Repeat Bridge #2:

Repeat Chorus:

No Dice Lyrics

YOU DON'T NEED ME

Yes I want you girl.
You know.
Don't you know girl?
Yes I want you girl.

Yes I want you girl.
You know.
Don't you know girl?
Yes I want you girl.

Yes I want you girl.
You know.
Don't you know girl?
Yes I want you girl.

Are you gonna tell me
for the rest of my life that...
You Don't Need Me?

You Don't Need Me.
You Don't Need Me.

DECEMBER

Verse #1:

December.

A low tide sinking wave.

She didn't arrive late.

She didn't come at all.

Verse #2:

Who will hold thee?

When it's cold at night.

She didn't arrive late.

She didn't come at all.

Bridge:

The lizard awaited.

Attentive in design.

Then finally in full time.

SHINY LAKE

Verse #1:

Can we find the Shiny Lake where the waterfalls flow?
The words 'I Love You' we learn to come to know.
Turn the shade to flowers with shiny daydreams.
Nights of shooting rain stars fall around you and me.

Verse #2:

I wrote her a love letter, but I had no time.
If she don't recognize my number. I'll stay on the ride.
And if I hear the call arise I'll fly to someplace
Where love's all mine. Love's gotta be mine.

Bridge:

Every smile she greets me with is like a photograph.
She just won't change, and she don't need to.
Anytime I need a simple answer. I call, I write...
I know she will be there.

Chorus:

Shiny Lake. Drifting to her.
That's where I need to be.
You'll see what I mean.
Shiny Lake. In the sun.
There'll be no wrong mistake.
We'll find Shiny Lake.
